	12. -	Riri Bazaar. View of the famous Hindu temple especially sacred to Nepali Hindus. [redacted]
25X1	13. -	Riri Bazaar. Another view of the famous temple. Riri Bazaar is only a small town of maybe 50 or 60 houses. It is 10 miles north of Tansing. [redacted]
25X1	14. -	Riri Bazaar. View of main street. [redacted]
25X1	15. -	Nepalese army officer in uniform. He was overseeing his rice harvest. [redacted]
25X1	16. -	[redacted]
25X1	17. -	House just north of Baglung. The Kali Gandak river is to the right and down about three thousand feet. The house is on a little plateau and on the side of the hill where the city of Baglung is located. [redacted]
	18. -	Further up the Kali Gandak River beyond Beni. The mountains are steep here. Elevation is about 35 hundred feet. In the background is Mount Dhaulagiri, 26,800 feet. [redacted]
	19. -	Kali Gandak river and trail as it cuts through the mountains above Dana and below Ghasa. Dana is at an elevation of approximately five thousand feet and Ghasa approximately eight thousand feet. [redacted]
25X1	20. -	Inhabitants of the town of Tukche, North Nepal. [redacted]
	21. -	Annapurna showing a glacier on the north-northeast of the range. Camera facing west-northwest from the main road at about eight thousand feet. Thanksgiving day 1949. [redacted]
25X1	22. -	Kali Gandak River at nine thousand feet. [redacted]
	23. -	Trail coolies approaching Ulleri Ridge from the south. Beyond the Ulleri Ridge about 15 miles was the large town of Pokhara. [redacted]
	24. -	Building along the road beyond the Ulleri Ridge near a town called Dirithanta at an elevation of about four thousand feet. [redacted]
25X1	26. -	Pokhara valley panorama. The main part of the city is near the mountains rising in the left of the picture. [redacted]
